

Barry Appleton

Barry Appleton, the Managing Partner of Appleton & Associates, is an international lawyer specializing in international trade and investment law. He is the author of several publications on international law and is the Editor-In-Chief of the Investor State Reports and Appleton's International Investment Law and Arbitration News.

Mr. Appleton has served as lead counsel for investors in a large number of investor-state disputes under the NAFTA and Bilateral Investment Treaties. These cases, spanning four continents, involve obtaining compensation for wrongful expropriation, breaches of international fairness standards, discrimination and failures to provide national or most-favored nation treatment. They have been heard by international tribunals established under various arbitration rules, including the World Bank's ICSID Rules and the UNCITRAL Rules of the United Nations.

Mr. Appleton served as a trade advisor to the Ontario Cabinet Committee on North American Free Trade in 1993. He is a regular commentator in national media on international trade and investment issues and has provided expert testimony before the Canadian parliament.

Education

LL.M., International Law, Cambridge University
LL.B., Queen's University
B.A. (Hons.), International Relations, University of Toronto

Admitted to Practice

Ontario, New York, District of Columbia, US Court of International Trade

Professional Memberships

American Bar Association, International Bar Association, Law Society of Upper Canada, Canadian Bar Association, American Society of International Law, American Trial Lawyers Association, Canadian Council on International Business, Toronto Board of Trade and Vancouver Board of Trade

Awards & Professional Leadership

Recognized as Young Global Leader by Geneva-based World Economic Forum
Director, National Chamber Foundation, U.S. Chamber of Commerce, Washington, D.C.
Honourary Representative and Special Correspondent in Washington, D.C., Vancouver Board of Trade (2002)
Director, Appleton Charitable Foundation

Languages

English, knowledge of French.